

CITY OF LODI

COUNCIL COMMUNICATION

AGENDA TITLE: Report of Activities of Code Action Team

MEETING DATE: January 4, 1995

PREPARED BY: Kirk J. Evans, Administrative Assistant to the City Manager

RECOMMENDED ACTION: That City Council hear the report by Eastside Improvement Committee Chairperson Virginia Snyder on Activities of Code Action Team.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Under the direction of the City Manager, various staff members and the Chair of the Eastside Improvement Committee now comprise the "Code Action Team".

The mission of the Code Action Team is to direct the resources of City staff and the community toward eliminating or repairing the most severe cases of property neglect in the City of Lodi.

The major goal of the Code Action Team is to complete and maintain a list of ten "problem" properties in the City of Lodi and strive to eliminate these properties from the list. The Team wants to help create a vision of healthy neighborhoods with more affordable housing, reduced crime and an environment inviting to new residents and businesses.

The Team consists of the following members:

1. Leland Schmiedt - Community Improvement Officer
2. Kirk Evans - Assistant to the City Manager
3. Bob Gorbet - Fire Marshall
4. John Luebberke - Deputy City Attorney
5. Jim Siemers - Building Inspector II
6. Chet Somera - Police Seargent
7. Virginia Snyder - Eastside Improvement Committee Chair

The Team meets on a regular basis, usually every two weeks on Tuesdays. Three meetings of the Team have already been held. Members have prepared a list of ten properties to address. They are generally located in the area of East Locust, Elm and Pine Streets.

FUNDING: None required.

Respectfully Submitted,

Kirk J. Evans
Administrative Assistant to the City Manager
